of grain. So with the few dollars you put in our bank from time to time. The rain causes your grain to grow and the interest we pay causes your dollars to grow. Would the ablest business men in the country have a bank account if there were no advantage or convenience in it? Would they have been able to reach their present commanding position if they had spent half their time worrying about the safety of the money they had made? We invite you to open an account as they did and the advantages they found will surely come to you. When you have earned your money don't let it slip away from you, ten here; twenty there, a hundred somewhere else soon make a thousand dollars. We offer you our bank as a safe place in which to deposit your money. In which to deposit your money. We pay four per cent interest on SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

LONDON, Dec. 14—The great boot and shoemakers strike, which has threatened for some time to involve Great Britain in a serious labor war, has been settled. The men have been idle for many months and 20,000 will return to work tomorrow.

The "Fiesole," which has been undergoing repairs at Root's dry dock for several weeks past, under the supervision of Capt. Alex J. Goode will probably be launched Saturday and leave for Cocoa, her owner, H. W. Cannon, being expected there on the 20th inst.

A box of 25 Cigars will make your husband, brother, or sweetheart a very acceptable Xmas gift.

By L. C. DEMAREE.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who has ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls fit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, with hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments, both solid and liquid, ready for a cruise upon this beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridge-wood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with wisp draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptomeria forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; when they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches

which have wrought out the colors
and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists
from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite —where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona churns down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit.
Whatever one's shortcomings and
however indifferent or even callous
one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and squirrels,
birds and fruits" will send a thrill
that is reflected in distended pupils
and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat,
casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round, you are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness
and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, proficiency and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.
The Fastest Autos and The Finest
Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbucto, and you will be "shown."
Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with a constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours.
The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

GRATITUDE.

Gratitude is the fairest blossom that springs from the soul, and the heart of man knoweth none so fragrant, while its opponent, ingrattude, is a deadly weed, not only poisonous in itself, but impregnating
the very atmosphere in which it grows with fetid vapors.

An Optical Phenomenon.
The specter of Brocken is a striking optical phenomenon seen under peculiar atmospheric conditions at sunrise or sunset from the summit of the Brocken of Blockberg, the highest of the Harz mountains, in Saxony. It consists of a gigantic figure of the observer, projected on the mists that rise out of the valley on the side of the mountain opposite to the sun. This phenomenon is seen about eight or nine times every year and was formerly the cause of many popular superstitions.

Governor IS IMPRESSED WITH BEAUTIES OF DAYTONA.

recently in the convention in St. Louis that the labor element of Tampa were being unjustly imprisoned and treated by the citizens and cigar manufacturers.

Governor Gilchrist said that during his recent visit in Tampa he investigated the situation fully and came to the conclusion that the charges made by Mr. Gompers were unfounded. "Further," continued the governor, "the conviction of the three men to whom Mr. Gompers referred as being unjustly imprisoned, proved the fallacy of his contention."

The governor says there is nothing to arbitrate in the Tampa strike as there is no question of wages or unionism involved. The whole question is whether a collector for the cigar-makers' union shall be allowed, in the factories. It seems that under the rules of the union each cigar factory is to have a collector, whose duties are to collect so much dues per week from each workman. It is this collector that the manufacturers object to, and no other question is involved in the difficulty between the manufacturers and workmen. He is of the opinion that if the lives of any were jeopardized it was that of the manufacturers and business men. Governor Gilchrist says he found that at one time Mayor McKay had in his possession 47 anonymous letters, making threats of various natures.

Guests of the Elks—

At the meeting of the Daytona lodge of Elks Tuesday evening Governor Gilchrist and all members of his party proved themselves to be most democratic and apparently thoroughly enjoyed the associations with their brothers of the antlers. They are all enthusiastic members of the organization and thorough believers in the benevolent and charitable principles of the order. Following the regular lodge session a social time was enjoyed by the members of the lodge and visitors.

"This is a descriptive piece called 'Rural Life,' uncle," said Urban as the band played on. "Listen to the roosters crowing!"

"Is that what it represents?" said Uncle Ezra dryly. "If my flock of roosters could only crow like that I bet ye I'd lose no time breakin' into vandyville, by heck!" — Sunday Illustrated Magazine.

MATTER TO GO TO PEOPLE FOR DECISION AT ELECTION.

BELIEVES BEST INTERESTS OF
CITY WOULD BE SERVED BY HAVING A JUDGE TO TRY ALL CASES.

Editor Daily News:—I will state my views as regards the importance of the city of Daytona having a municipal judge.

So long as the city, or any other city of our size or larger, allows the mayor to act as judge of cases brought in, so long as we have a slack enforcement of our ordinances. Human nature will not permit anything else. No matter whether he is a business man or not he will have his reasons for letting things slide along smooth over grievances without bringing them into the mayor's court.

One may say he is opposed to anyone holding public office by appointment, but if he will stop and look this matter over he will see that the office of municipal judge will be simply to try cases and determine whether or not an ordinance has been violated. The municipal judge makes no laws and does not represent the people in any measure, and for this reason will do his duty without regard for the vote of his friend.

The mayor in this case will be the executive of the city and attend to all the duties he does at the present time except passing upon the violation of laws.

A board of trade should be independent of the city council as the council has plenty of troubles of its own without assuming the troubles of any other organization. Ask any alderman if he would serve on a board of trade as well as serving in the council and he will say, "No, I have plenty now." I have served in the council for the past two years and I believe I can fill the office of mayor with due respect to the position.

YACHT LOITERER II HERE FROM HOBE SOUND

The Loiterer II arrived Tuesday morning from Hobe Sound and tied up at the Halifax River Yacht club dock to await friends of the owner, expected from Jacksonville by the night train.

With the owner of the Loiterer II C. F. Sparks, was his wife and son and a friend and neighbor from Hobe Sound, John H. Grant, vice commodore and secretary of the Hobe Sound Yacht club, of which Mr. Sparks is also a member. Mr. Sparks is from Alton, Ill., but owns a winter home at Hobe Sound.

The Loiterer II is a flush deck cruiser, 46 feet in length by 9 foot beam. Her draft is 30 inches. She is propelled by a 25 horsepower Sparks engine.

VISITORS ARE IMPRESSED WITH CITY OF DAYTONA.

Among the distinguished visitors in the city this week are W. H. Collins of Gloversville, N. Y., general manager of the Fonda, Johnstown & Gloversville railroad and the electric railroads in and around Gloversville, and Postmaster Dewey of Gloversville. Mr. Dewey is also a big coal dealer in the New York state city. This is the first visit of either of these gentlemen to Daytona, and they are both very favorably impressed with the prettiest little winter resort in the south. Mr. Collins is in ill-health at this time and will probably remain in Daytona for at least a month. Mr. Dewey expects to return to the north next week. Both gentlemen are the guests of C. O. Chamberlain of the Palmetto.

A Shopping Acrostic.

Do not wait until too late,
O shopper of the season!

Your purse and list in hand, go forth—
O haste you! There's a reason.
Up then and count your hoarded cash;
Roll up your sleeves and make a dash.

Christmas spirit's in the air—
Happy hearts are beating—
Royal season of the year.
It's a time of greeting.
Some folks hesitate until Things are hurly-burly.
Make all haste, the merchant pleads,
And do buying early.
Sure, this means you, girly.

Shopping early is an art.
Hurry and acquire it.
O kind friend, be one of those People who desire it!
Push ahead—it's up to you.
If you're wise you'll hustle.
Nab the early bargain birds.
Grab 'em as they rustle.

Early shopping—that's the game!
Ah, you'd better try it!
Rush the line and, seeing some Lovely gift, don't shy it.
You just up and buy it!
—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

ARTISTS' EMBLEMS.

In Whistler's Butterfly Could Be Found
the Monogram J. W.

The mystic emblem or device of a sort of Whistlerized butterfly was adopted in the sixties by the eccentric genius James Abbott Whistler, who changed his name later to James McNeill Whistler.

Close study will reveal that this peculiar scroll is really a monogram of J. W. The earliest of the etchings to bear the butterfly is "Chelsea Wharf" (1863), but many paintings and etchings after that date are signed "Whistler."

Artists have sometimes signed their pictures in some distinct form instead of their names. It generally was done when the name might suggest some emblem or symbol.

Thus Hieronymus Cock demarked two fighting cocks on his panels; Marten Albertine signed a cross with two interlaced rings, referring to the sacerdotal duties to which at one time of his life he devoted himself; Martin Rota, a wheel; Pieter de Ryng, a ring with a diamond; Giovanni Dossi, a bone; Del Mazo Martines, a hammer; Lionello Spada, a sword.

Sometimes caprice dictated the selection, as when Jacopo de Barberi used the caduceus, or Mercury rod; Hendrik de Bles an owl, Lucas Cranach a crowned serpent, Cornelius Engelbrechtsen a peculiar device resembling a weather vane and Hans Holbein a skull.

"They're beginning to put on airs."
"Is that so?"
"Yes; their washwoman is now a laundress."—Detroit Free Press.

PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE is a pretty little town situated on the south of Daytona on the Daytona-New Smyrna beach highway of the East Coast. The town is located on the Halifax River, and is connected with the peninsula opposite by a bridge.

The town is well laid out and has many pretty homes. A large number of tourists and winter residents make Port Orange winter headquarters, one of the several attractions being the excellent fishing.

A short distance west of Port Orange are the remains of the old Dunlawton sugar mill, a place that is visited every year by hundreds of tourists. One time all the country west of Port Orange, surrounding the old mill, was a vast indigo and sugar cane plantation. The mill was operated extensively in those early days but has been in disuse for forty or fifty years.

A very interesting drive from Daytona is by ocean beach to the approach of the Port Orange bridge, across the bridge and then passing through the principal street of Port Orange to the ruins of the celebrated old sugar mill, returning to Daytona by the road on the mainland.

ENGLISH ELECTION REFORMS WILL FOLLOW THE POLLING.

PRESENT GENERAL ELECTIONS
HAVE STAGGERED BUSINESS AND CAUSED LOSSES OF
THOUSANDS OF POUNDS.

LONDON, Dec. 14—The present
general elections in England will likely lead to ultimate great electoral reforms. The elections now being carried on have staggered business and caused losses of thousands of pounds
without adding in the settling of constitutional questions.

Parliament will be asked to reform
the election system, the chief issue
at stake being the abolition of plural
voting.

It is now reasonably certain the new parliament will be practically the same as the old one. At noon today the government coalition forces had a lead of 62.

PORK STILL LOWER; MORE HOGS COME IN.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14—The receipts of hogs at the Chicago markets were again heavy today, with the prices 10 to 15 cents lower. The receipts of cattle were also heavy, but the prices remained steady.

NEW SMYRNA
FLORIDA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires
of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and over-arched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance
and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the state of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences.
There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the state is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

TO SETTLE QUESTION OF JUDGE.

VIEWS ON MUNICIPAL JUDGE AND DUTIES OF CITY MAYOR.

CITIZENS WILL HAVE OPPORTUN-ITY TO VOICE OPINION ON PRO-POSED CHARTER CHANGE IN FEBRUARY.

The much-discussed question as to whether the city of Daytona shall have a municipal judge to try all cases now brought before the Mayor and an unsalaried Mayor, will be left to the people for a decision at the election in February.

At least this is the solution of the problem which the city council proposes to make and the ordinance committee was instructed at the meeting Tuesday evening to prepare the proposed change in the city charter, to make it read that a municipal judge shall be appointed by the council, that the Mayor shall serve without salary and such other changes
 as the committee may deem necessary,
 and for the best interests of the city.

These proposed changes will be first submitted to the council and then to the people in the next election.

The proposed plan is to do away with the salary of the Mayor and have this money applied on the salary of the municipal judge. It is also proposed to have the offices of municipal judge and city attorney combined, and the salary now paid a separate city attorney applied toward the salary of the judge. It is believed this change will have the direct effect of causing a more strict enforcement of the city ordinances, because the judge, holding office by virtue of appointment from the council will not have his judgment influenced by the prospect of gaining or fear of losing votes at the next election.

By another action taken by the council at the meeting Tuesday evening it behooves all business persons who have not yet paid their occupation taxes to pay them at once. It was reported that a number of the occupation taxes, which the law requires shall be paid by the first of October, have not yet been paid, and the clerk was instructed to secure from the collector a list of all that have been paid and a list of all that have not been paid. The list of those who have not paid will be placed in the hands of the marshal and there will have to be an accounting for a violation of the ordinance.

By order of the council the shell
 banks belonging to the city are now closed and no more shell is to be sold from the banks. Trespass signs are to be put up on the premises as a warning that the banks are closed to all but the city. The clerk was also instructed to advertise for bids hauled over the roads. The contract city in the repair of streets hauled by water route to eliminate the necessity of having the heavy loads
 hauled over the roads. The contract
 for this work will call for the shell to be brought by water to the city and then hauled to the place where needed in the repair of streets.

The ordinance committee was instructed to renew the lease of the telephone company for the upper part of the city hall building for five years, with the understanding that the lease shall terminate in case the building is abandoned or torn down.
 The report of City Health Officer
 E. L. Stewart, for the month of November showed no births and one death. The health officer called the attention of the council to the fact that the birth and death reports are not being filed with the department as they should be, according to the law. He said the general sanitary conditions of the city are good.
 Bills to the amount of $452.08 were ordered paid by the council.

MORE LIGHT WANTED ON THE WATER.

WHAT HAS BECOME OF THE WATER SOFTENING PROJECT?

PUBLIC IS ASKING WHY THIS IM-PORTANT IMPROVEMENT IN
 THE CITY WATERWORKS
 PLANT IS NOT CARRIED OUT.

Consumers of city water and the public in general are wondering why
 the movement for softening the city water has been shelved or abandoned.
 There is no question of the feasibility of the plan, as the same thing
 is being done in both public and private water plants all over the country. Further, there can be no doubt that softening the water will increase its consumption by those now using it and that many others will be induced thereby to take the water.

The cost of installing the water softening apparatus is placed at $2,000, or not to exceed $2,500 and this is a comparatively small sum when the benefits to be derived are considered, for the water could then be used for a variety of purposes
 for which it is not at present suitable and would also be improved for drinking purposes. Lime and soda, which are used in the softening process, are both cheap chemicals and after the installation of the plant the cost of softening the water will amount to only one and a half cents per 1,000 gallons.

Water thus softened is said to be superior even to rain water and could be used for all purposes for which rain water is considered preferable to hard water.
 It is very probable that, with the water softened, the F. E. G. Ry.
 would make use of it for their engines and this large consumption
 would go far to supporting the change and paying off the cost of installing the plant.

T. A. Snider, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who owns the beautiful group of bungalows in the southern part of the city, is greatly interested in this question, as are also a number of other winter residents, and there is strong talk of calling a meeting of Daytona's citizens to urge that this improvement, which is really a necessity, be carried through to completion as soon as possible. Some means can certainly be devised to obtain the funds necessary for the work.

Another matter that appeals to the average citizen is the proposed change of rules, whereby the water rate would be based on the maintenance charge with additional charge for the water actually used, which would be more equitable than the plan now used, permitting small consumers to put in city water, who now feel unable to do so.

It is figured that a maintenance charge of $5.00 with a rate of ten cents per 1,000 gallons would return
 about the same revenue as the rate
 now prevailing.

The adoption of both these features would seem good policy, as both are inducements to the large consumption of city water. George A. Main, superintendent of the waterworks, who has the success of the system deeply at heart strongly endorses both measures.

SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising and progressive towns on the Halifax Peninsula, are geographically one although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns parallel the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide water stream that sets them apart from Daytona with which they have close communion by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth, air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straight-away record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobilizing some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors in both towns.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated. The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy.

The Poor.
We all love the poor. It would be entirely unnecessary, if not positively caddish, to say that we hate the poor. But there are two kinds of poor—the individual poor and the collective poor. It is not the individual poor that we love; it is the collective poor. It is not the poor that we know and see, but the poor that we do not know and have neither time nor inclination to look at. We are afraid if we see them we shall cease to love them. We never say, "God bless the ice-man, or the coal heaver, or the motorman." For them we find our exonerations for not contributing to our comfort just so and so and so.

It is with great fervor, however, that we can say, "God bless the poor," because the poor do not interfere with our comfort to the slightest degree.—Life.

Fielding at Lisbon.

Lisbon contains the grave of Henry Fielding. It was on Oct. 4, 1754, that Fielding died in the Portuguese capital, and it was in 1830 that his tomb was erected in the English cemetery. And Fielding didn't like Lisbon. "As the houses, convents, churches, etc., are large," he wrote, "and all built with white stone, they look beautiful at a distance, but as you approach nearer and find them to want every kind of ornament all idea of beauty vanishes at once." At that time a voyage to Lisbon was an undertaking not lightly to be contemplated. It took Fielding exactly fifty days of foul weather.—St. James' Gazette.

"Do as Rome Does."

The saying "Do as Rome does" originated with St. Ambrose in the fourth century. It arose from a diversity of the observance of Saturday. The Milanese made it a feast, the Romans a fast. St. Ambrose, being asked what should be done in such a case, replied: "In matters of little consequence it is better to be guided by the general usage. When I am at Milan I do not fast on Saturday, but when I am at Rome I do as they do in Rome."

An Astonishing Invention.

Perhaps one of the most astonishing inventions on record was the device of a Frenchman who suggested the laying down of huge suction tubes from the coast out to various points in the open sea. When war broke out and hostile fleets approached the coast, machinery on shore would be set to work, the enemy's vessels would be caught by the irresistible suction, drawn to the ends of the tubes and there held firmly as prisoners. The one essential part of this idea which seemed to be missing was the machinery which was going to draw a 25,000 ton warship backward with its engines going at "full steam ahead."

Girls, Exercise!

All Kinds
Good.

Golf!
Walk!
Swim!

By Miss ELEANOR SEARS, Society Athlete.

GIRLS, EXERCISE! Exercise whenever you get a chance. I began exercising the first time I fell out of my crib.

It's hard to tell what sort of exercise any girl or woman should take. EVERYBODY IN ORDINARY HEALTH SHOULD EXERCISE, of course, but what one girl should do and what another should do would be hard for me to say. I like everything.

WALKING is fine. I was out in California last spring, and I started to walk from Burlingame to Del Monte, one hundred and eight miles. I walked sixty-four miles the first day, and then what sort of friends I had! They actually lied to me. They told me I was all in, that I couldn't make it and all that sort of rubbish.

I could have made it easily in the sixty hours that had been laid down for me. But they went back on me—even the men. It was dark and I didn't know the roads and I couldn't go on alone, and they actually made me give it up because they left me. Walking hurts no one, and it is surprising how far even a girl can walk when she gets into training for it and has good health to back her up.

IF MORE GIRLS WALKED OR EXERCISED OTHERWISE THERE WOULD BE A BETTER BRAND OF WOMEN IN THE UNITED STATES.

SWIMMING IS THE BEST EXERCISE OF ALL. I love it. I THINK EVERY GIRL OUGHT TO KNOW HOW TO SWIM. IT MAKES THE BODY MORE GRACEFUL, IT GIVES EVERY MUSCLE A CHANCE TO WORK, AND IT KEEPS THE FIGURE FIT.

Golf or tennis is fine exercise. Any girl can play those games. Of course each girl has got to pick her own exercise for herself. But I can't see why the average girl doesn't try something like that. HOW MUCH BETTER SHE'D FEEL! And she could dance better too.

"Shakespeare was a smart man," said Si Simlin, "but there was times when he didn't hit it right."

"For instance?"

"That remark about 'rather bear the ills we have than fly to others that we know not of.' If that was the case there wouldn't be no hoss trades."—Washington Star.

Accomplished.

First Passenger—That is Conductor Punched. He is one of the most experienced men on the road. Second Passenger—I knew it before you told me. First Passenger—How so? Second Passenger—Because he slams the door at the precise instant that he calls the station's name.—Judge.

Is the World a Good Sized Fortune

Little Miss Marion Grey walked into Madison Square Garden, New York city, with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Grey, and there the little girl saw the smallest horse in the world. "I want that horse," the little girl said. "It's yours," said the father. And then his troubles started. Channing L. Dillon, a wealthy Englishman, did not want to sell the animal, but when Miss Marion explained that she would give a pile of silver dollars as high as the horse he considered the offer. The exact price paid for the little horse was not made public, but Mr. Grey said if his little daughter would stand on top of the horse's head the pile of silver dollars he paid to Mr. Dillon would still be beyond reach of the little miss's fingers.

CAUGHT THE COINER.

An Accident Spoiled an Ingenious Counterfeit Passing Scheme.

A case which shows the ingenuity used in passing counterfeit coin is the following: A tailor, who also was a very successful coiner, had a little daughter who was some ten years old. She was being taught to play the violin, and twice a week she went to have a music lesson at a house about a mile distant. Once a week the innocent little thing carried besides her violin case and violin a package cunningly secreted in the false bottom of the violin case, which contained some twenty or more pieces of counterfeit coin.

The music master, a rogue who was in the know, found no difficulty in abstracting the package unnoticed by the child and in his turn passed it on to a woman "fence," who again gave it to a male friend, who delivered it safely to the "utterer," a woman again, at a street corner, the package being this time concealed in the false bottom of a canary cage. Thus it passed through six hands, and besides the man himself only the music master knew who manufactured the coin.

The tailor was caught by an accident. His little girl let the violin case fall in the street, the bottom of the case was smashed, and all the coins, done up in tissue paper, fell into the street. The child, much mystified, opened one of the little packages, and the glitter caught a policeman's eye. This mishap led to the instant arrest of the tailor, who confessed, hoping for a light sentence, a hope which was not realized. Among the coiner's stock in trade were discovered two works on chemistry, fourteen molds, two batteries, plaster of paris, two ladles, a melting pot, crucibles and a quantity of chemicals.—London Telegraph.

"The bread I eat in London is a deleterious paste, mixed up with chalk, alum and bone ashes, insipid to the taste and destructive to the constitution. The good people are not ignorant of this adulteration, but they prefer it to wholesome bread because it is whiter than the meal of corn."—Washington Post.

She broke our dishes by the score;
 She broke the pots and pans;
 She broke the mantel and the floor;
 She broke six garbage cans;
 She broke our cut glass treasure up
 In groups of twos and threes;
 She broke an iron drinking cup
 With ease.

She broke the chimney, too, one day,
 A fact which grieved us sore,
 And then, to add to our dismay,
 She broke the furnace door.
 She left at last with pleasant joke,
 While we surveyed the mess,
 The very last thing that she broke
 Was us.

Any of These Men Ever Call On You For a "Handout?"

Hoboes? They hardly look it, but still they were the leading spirits in the hobo organization that met in New York city recently. "Chuck" Coiners, the famous Bowery character, was present not as a hobo, but just to add some local color, he said. J. Eads How was the man who decided to have the meeting, and he invited hoboes from all parts of the country to meet and tell why they were tramps. Many responded, and the majority agreed that they did not like work. Those who confessed to liking work added that they were troubled in finding the kind of work that best suited them. How, who has gained fame as the "millionaire tramp," declared the hoboes of this country did not have a chance, and he brought students of labor questions to help along his story. But the hoboes flocked to New York in crowds, ate of How's food, and then started him and the audience by declaring it was hard work working, that their reason for being hoboes.

COSTLY KISSES AT CHRISTMAS

At a Christmas dinner given every year to the old folks of Hanley, the capital of the potteries district in England, a quaint ceremony is regularly observed.

At the conclusion of the meal one of the oldest of the women guests advances to the platform and kisses the mayor on both cheeks. His worship gallantly returns the salute, and the exchange of kisses continues until all the more venerable dames present have been thus honored.

In large business establishments, where the assistants live in, a great deal of kissing goes on at Christmas time. Some of the more daring spirits among the male "hands" have been known to make bets with one another as to the number of different girls they would kiss between Christmas eve and New Year's eve.

In a certain London drapery house two or three seasons ago one of these "horrid males" made a record by saluting seventeen different damsels. But he found the game was not worth the candle, for, in addition to a scratched face and a pretty severe pommeling at the hands of a victim's sweetheart, the rash youth found his services dispensed with.

At another great emporium one Christmas indiscriminate kissing created so much trouble that more than a dozen young men were dismissed. Ever since in this particular establishment even the introduction of a sprig of mistletoe during the festive season has been enough to insure instant dismissal.

A girl who appeared with a sprig of it in her blouse was ordered to put on her things and leave at once. A playful young man who merely pretended to kiss a young lady assistant was hurried off the premises with his hat and overcoat in his hand.

The Lancashire factory maid has a little kissing custom all her own that is sacred to Christmas. At this special period she will kiss an overlooker or any other male "hand" in the expectation that she will be rewarded with a shilling for her temerity.

Woe betide the ungallant worker who fails to part with the coin. He will find his coat sleeves sewed up or nailed to the wall. If the girl herself does not do this her fellow workers will.

Some of the more venturesome have been known to "get their employer

SHE WILL KISS ANY MALE "HAND."

round the neck" and kiss him, but the risks are great. If he takes the liberty kindly he will part with a sovereign; if otherwise he will part with the kisser. In one instance the master was so furious at being kissed that he closed his works until New Year's day, thus mulcting the hands in a week's wages.

A ludicrous story is told of a young Japanese engineering apprentice in connection with the Christmas custom of kissing. He was serving his time in the north of England and was astonished when a waitress at the dining rooms which he regularly frequented kissed him under the mistletoe.

On its being explained to him that a present was expected in return, he suggested a pair of gloves. The damsel, however, had heard that he was immensely wealthy and gently hinted that something for her neck would be more acceptable. When the present arrived next day she conjured up visions of a pearl necklace as she tremblingly undid the parcel. Then was disclosed to her disappointed gaze a Jap's idea of "something for her neck." It took the shape of a bar of soap.

It is interesting to recall a strange Christmas kissing custom that in times gone by was regularly observed at a certain London hostelry. This was a house known as the Pied Bull in Clerkenwell, the landlord of which was under an obligation to bestow on every woman who came in before noon and kissed him a given measure of ale.

If records can be relied on "mine host" had no lack of lady customers on the festive morn.—Tit-Bits.

BRUISED FINGER NAILS. A Simple Remedy That Keeps Them From Turning Black.

A young woman who was going to a debutante dinner the next evening bruised three of the finger nails of her right hand badly by catching them in a door. Visions of an unsightly hand, possibly one in a sling, drove her to the telephone to get in touch with her physician.

His advice was: "Get yourself a comfortable chair and an interesting book, set yourself by a stationary washstand, in such a way that the fingers can be held upright under the faucet, then turn on the cold water and let it run over the bruised fingers for at least three-quarters of an hour, preferably longer.

"If the water gets too cold or chills you during that time turn it off for a few minutes, but never once let the hand get out of the upright position so the blood can run into the bruised finger and blacken."

The maiden's hand was unmarred for her dinner, and she was so delighted with the remedy she told it for the benefit of the guests, one at least of whom has tried this cure repeatedly since, being inclined to awkwardness and badly bruised fingers. No matter how bad the hurt, unless the finger is mashed the throbbing will not be followed with weeks of blackened nails.—Exchange.

VICE PRESIDENT KING.

Took the Oath of Office Abroad, but Did Not Live to Serve.

William Rufus King, born April 6, 1786, died April 18, 1853, was a vice president of the United States who never served in that capacity and one who took the oath of office on foreign soil, something which can be said of no other executive officer who has ever been elected by the people of this country. King was an invalid, but his friends urged him to take second place on the ticket with Pierce in 1852.

Both were elected, but Mr. King's health failed so rapidly that he was forced to go to Cuba some two months before inauguration day. Not having returned to the United States by March 4, congress passed a special act authorizing the United States consul at Matanzas, Cuba, to swear him in as vice president at about the hour when Pierce was taking the oath of office at Washington.

This arrangement was carried out to a dot, and on the day appointed, at a plantation on one of the highest hills in the vicinity of Matanzas, Mr. King was made vice president of the United States amid the solemn "Vaya vol con Dios" (God will be with you) of the creoles who had assembled to witness the unique spectacle. Vice President King returned to his home at Cahawba, Ala., arriving at that place April 17, 1853, and died the following day.

Wedding Fees in New York.

Large wedding fees are rare even in New York. Fees of $50 and $100 are considered large. The $1,000 fee when it makes its appearance usually goes to the rector of a wealthy congregation who enjoys a salary of $10,000 or $12,000 a year. Larger fees are sometimes given. The man of wealth, actuated by a high regard for his pastor and friend, occasionally gives his check for $2,000 or $3,000 under the guise of a wedding fee. He wishes to help the minister and knows the money would not be accepted under any other circumstances. Such gifts, it is needless to say, are extremely rare. New York has a few clergymen whose marriage fees average $1,200 a year. The pastor of a large Presbyterian church on Broadway has estimated that his fees amount annually to $1,000. These are topnotch figures.—Christian Herald.

Ich Dien or Eich Dyn.

Which is accurate as the motto of the Prince of Wales—Ich Dien or Eich Dyn? The one is German and the other Welsh. The one means "I serve," the other "Behold the man" or "Behold your man."

"Ich Dien" was the motto of John, king of Bohemia, whom the Black Prince slew at Crecy. "Eich Dyn" are the words supposed to have been used by Edward I. when presenting his infant son to the Welsh assembly at Carnarvon.

Welsh tradition has adhered naturally to the Welsh form. The other has been more popularly accepted.—London Lady's Pictorial.

A Queer Ceremony.

A queer ceremony is performed every year on the 8th day of September in the Valle Maggio, Italy. The region abounds in vipers. The celebrants form into a weird procession, each person—man, woman and child—carrying a huge figure of a snake stuffed with cotton. As they pass along they weep and lament, believing that by the expiatory ceremony they will render themselves proof against snake bites during the grape gathering.

Wretched Man.

Algy—By Jove! Miss Clara, how sweet you look in white! Do you know when I saw you coming across the lawn you looked so nice I thought it was Miss Julia—Harper's Bazar.

Generous.

"Some men say," remarked the beautiful heiress, "that I have no heart."
 "Oh, that doesn't matter!" replied the poor but willing youth. "I'll give you mine."

Reflect upon your present blessings, of which every man has many, not upon your past misfortunes, of which all men have some.

RUNAWAY ON THE OCEAN BEACH THIS MORNING.

A colored man, driving a horse attached to a cart, while on the ocean beach near the Clarendon hotel this morning in some manner lost his grasp on the reins and the horse took fright and ran away. The man fell forward between the cart and horse and was kicked by the latter, but not seriously hurt, as he walked from the scene of the accident with the help of a couple of men. The horse continued its mad flight up the beach, as far as it could be seen but was later captured and brought back in a well lathered condition.

Telling His Troubles.

"Will you have our bell repaired? It won't ring," said the tenant. "Very soon," answered the landlord. "In the meantime tack a card near the button saying, 'Bell doesn't ring.'" This the tenant did, and as the days passed without the use of the bell he added as follows: "Windows and doors don't fit. 'Faucets don't shut water off. 'Water doesn't run from bathtub. 'Stairs have no railings." These brought the long disagreement to a climax, and the tenant moved.—Buffalo Express.
